Admiral Dewey is 61 years old, but he fights like sixty.

If Spain passes under military control Weyler is just the man for dictator. He can dictate to two types writers at once.

Gen. Miles, with 50,000 strong, will soon be marching through Cuba, riding by side with a band of heroes, fighting for liberty and justice. The light is dawning.

That there is courtesy even in war is shown by the fact that the United States notified Great Britain to remove her subjects from the Philippine country before we commenced passing up those iron bouquets.

Now is the time to begin making arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July and the downfall of Spain in Cuba. The event will come near enough together to make one big celebration meet the requirements of the situation beautifully.

There are a good many vexatious matters cropping out in connection with the trouble over Cuba, such, for instance, as what is to be done with the Philippine Islands, etc. There will be plenty of time to consider those things however after the main question has been settled. The first thing to do is to kick Spain till she cries "enough."

Here are a few choice editorial expressions from the leading newspaper of Porto Rico:

"These dogs of English and these Yankee pigs"—Bule in M-remial, government organ.

"Treacherous and fraudulent pigs of Yankees."—Boletin Mercantile.

"All the nations of Europe are the friends of Spain, with the one exception of that grasping, ambitious and piratical England."—Boletin Mercantile.

"When fortune favors us in the war as it must; when we have made an immense bonfire of the proud city of Washington and leveled New York in the dust, we will play on that treacherous nation such a heavy indemnity that they will have to sell us their wives and daughters to enable them to pay it. Viva Espana."—Boletin Mercantile.

"Our fields require manure. The bones of the Yankees will make excellent manure, and with that we will fertilize them."—El Herald.

"It is proposed shortly to set up a factory to make sausages from the flesh of Yankees."—La Union.

GOOD HEALTH GOOD HUMOR

It isn't much trouble to be good, healthy and happy. Jollity and exuberance are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing does not have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

It is impossible to estimate the tremendous influence of health upon human character. A man who is healthy will not be in a happy contented frame of mind. A man who suffers from a weak stomach and an impaired digestion will sit and groan through the best meal ever prepared. A billion man who is not a bore, is deserving of a place in a museum. A man who is healthy is not a bore, and failing him is a curiosity. All these conditions lead to grave diseases, when the victim becomes not only disagreeable, but dependent as well. A wise wife will realize that while the old saying that "a man's heart is in his stomach," is not literally true, it is nevertheless a strong expression of his character according to its healthy or unhealthy.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of medicines for the conditions described. It makes the weak stomach strong, the impaired digestion perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and refreshes the blood and tones the nerves. It tears down half-dead, inert tissues and replaces them with the firm muscular tissues of health. It builds new and healthy nerve fibers and brain cells. It dissipates nervousness and melancholy and imparts mental activity and courage. It is the best of all known medicines for nervous disorders.

"Through your skillful treatment I am once more a well man," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Toledo, Ohio, "I was suffering from asthma and could not find relief until I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I suffered from constipation and inflammation of liver, with a great deal of pain and soreness, and inflammation of the bladder. I had only taken one bottle when I found great relief. The medicine has effected a permanent cure."

BISBEE JOINTINGS

BISBEE, May 11, 1898.
COPPERINGS.

The Bisbee contingent for the trial jury on Monday next promises to be very large.

Miss Alice Crable came in this morning from Tombstone on a short visit to Bisbee friends.

About 25 Bisbeites who have court business to attend will leave for the county seat Sunday night.

The R. D. Men's event will take place tonight. Considerable preparations have been made it a pleasant affair.

Thos. Jones one of the jolliest drummers on the road came in this morning to supply our merchants with more spirits.

Dave Douglass is in the city from the Barbacoons on business. Chas. has many friend Bisbeites who are glad to meet him.

E. W. Land the attorney came in this morning from Tombstone on a flying professional trip and will return tonight to be in attendance on court.

Frank Cox attorney for the S. P. came in this morning from Phoenix on business connected with the company. Mr. Cox was somewhat surprised to note the remarkable strides in population and business that Bisbee has shown in the past year and thinks our camp one of the liveliest in the territory. It is understood Mr. Cox is here regarding some matters pertaining to the building of the Nacossari branch of the A. & S. E.

BISBEE, May 12, 1898.
COPPERINGS.

Miss Alice Crable one of Tombstone's fairest young ladies, who was here on a visit to friends returned to Tombstone today.

Lee Ross the company's carpenter left yesterday for Nacossari where he goes to take charge of some work for the company.

A McLeod the popular assistant cashier in the company's store, leaves this week for his old home in Canada to spend his vacation.

Leslie Allen the cattle inspector came up from Nogales yesterday and left this morning for the line where he will inspect several hundred head of cattle.

Mr. J. W. Williams who has just recovered from a recent illness leaves this week for San Diego, Cal. She will be accompanied by her son Tomkin Williams.

The ladies of the St. John's Episcopal Guild will give an ice cream and strawberry festival at the Opera House Saturday evening. A very interesting programme of songs, recitations, etc., will be presented. Special decorations have been made for this occasion and a large attendance is expected. The following is the programme to be presented: Flag drill by 16 young ladies; duet by Miss N. Hughes and Mrs. Otto Von Kamel; Klondike solo by Miss N. Hughes; Tipy chair and the House that Jack Built.

J. C. Thacker the special detective of Wells Fargo & Co. arrived here yesterday on a short trip. Mr. Thacker is always on the lookout for his enemy. He recently located and arrested a man in Prescott who stole a sack containing $ 800 from W. F. & Co. and received all of the money but $ 73. It is believed the detective is now here on the trail of a robber of his company. He is also interested in the movements of the Black Jack band and taking notes generally.

Too Much for Him.
Mrs. Honeyman—Here is an item in the paper saying that in some parts of Australia when a man marries each one of the bride's relatives strikes him with a stout stick by way of welcome into the family. Queer sort of an idea, isn't it? Mr. Honeyman feeling an extra lump on his head—But! I don't see that it is any queerer than digging all their old shoes at him, as they do in this country.—N. Y. Truth.

Her Solution.

Maman (to Tiny Tot), who wants to deprive a younger brother of a deficiency they have both set their hearts on—No, darling, you must let baby have it now, and when he grows up and you are a young lady he will have to give way to you.

Tiny Tot—Is that why papa always has to do what you want, mummy?

Punch.

Too Much for Him.

"I will give $100 to anyone who can equal me in teeth," shouted the professor of dentistry, who had the stage.

"I accept your offer," answered a man, as he pushed through the crowd.

"Do you belong to the perfumery?"

"Now; I manufacture gas meters."

"Then I withdraw the proposition."

American Securities Abroad.

The sales of American securities have been, according to London advice, very large abroad of late. If this state of things holds, there will be an increasing index of British gold into this market.

This demonstrates the faith abroad in the stability of our credit.

There is another point of faith for which the people not only of this foreign countries have good grounds for credence, and that is in the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for inorganic maladies which affect the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and nerves. Dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and rheumatism are conquered by it. It hastens convalescence, and diffuses a generous warmth and sensation of physical comfort through the system.
